Special Program For Public Library Birthday

On Friday the Friends of the Cohasset Library will celebrate the 100th birthday of the Cohasset Free Public Library at their annual meeting.

The program will be at the Unitarian Parish House at 8 p.m. A business meeting will precede the program at 7:30.

As a special birthday present to the library and its patrons, the Friends have asked Edward Rowe Snow, noted mariner, historian and folklorist, to give a program on Massachusetts Bay and the South Shore 100 years ago. Snow is known throughout New England for his vivid tales of pirates, shipwrecks, lighthouses and ghosts, and for his ability to recreate history as a human event.

Following Snow's program, dessert and coffee will be served.
